CODE OF CONDUCT

We will not tolerate harassment of the people at our convention in any form. Everyone is entitled to a harassment-free convention experience, regardless of gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, race, national origin, or religion.

Harassment includes but is not limited to inappropriate physical contact, unwelcome sexual attention, offensive verbal comments, deliberate intimidation, stalking or following someone, making harassing photography or recordings, and disrupting talks or other events. Anyone asked to stop any harassing behavior is expected to comply immediately. A request to "stop" or "go away" means exactly that. If anyone engages in harassing behavior, the convention committee may warn the offender, remove the offender from the room, or expel the offender from the convention with no refund, at the Chairs' discretion.

If you feel that you are being discriminated against or harassed, or if you notice someone violating hotel or convention policies, we respectfully suggest the following:

If you feel comfortable doing so, point out the inappropriate behavior to the persons involved. Often this will solve the problem immediately.

If you do not feel comfortable talking with the persons involved or if talking to them does not resolve the issue, please report the situation immediately to a Convention Committee member, or Operations Staff. Try to provide a name, badge name, badge number, and/or physical description of the persons involved.

In order to take action, we need to know about any incidents during the event.

GUESTS OF HONOR

TANANARIVE DUE

Tananarive Due is an award-winning novelist and screenwriter who teaches Afrofuturism at UCLA. She also teaches creative writing in the MFA program at Antioch University Los Angeles and for Voices of Our Nations (VONA). The American Book Award winner and NAACP Image Award recipient is the author of twelve novels and a civil rights memoir. She received a Lifetime Achievement Award in the Fine Arts from the Congressional Black Caucus and has been named to the Griot100 and Ebony Power 100. Her short story collection Ghost Summer won a British Fantasy Award and was nominated for an NAACP Image Award. In 2013, Due and her husband/collaborator Barnes co-wrote a short film, Danger Word (www.dangerword.com), based on their YA zombie novel Devil's Wake, which they co-produced with director Luchina Fisher. Starring Frankie Faison ("The Wire," Silence of the Lambs) and Saoirse Scott, Danger Word was nominated for Best

Narrative Short at the BronzeLens and Pan African film festivals. Read her writing blog at www.tananarivedue.wordpress.com. Join her mailing list at www.createyournarrative.com

KAREN JOY FOWLER

Karen Joy Fowler is the author of six novels and three short story collections. She's written literary, contemporary, historical, and science fiction, for which she's won two Nebulas and two World Fantasy Awards. Her most recent novel, We Are All Completely Beside Ourselves, won the 2013 PEN/Faulkner, the California Book Award, and was shortlisted for the Man Booker in 2014. She lives in Santa Cruz, California, where she is currently pretending to write a new book.

GREGORY MANCHESS

Gregory Manchess combined his love for fine art and science fiction and began his freelance career painting for OMNI magazine. His versatility and broad range of interests allowed him to expand his client work to include covers for Atlantic Monthly, Scientific American, and Time Magazine, as well as spreads for Playboy, Newsweek, Rolling Stone, Smithsonian, and numerous book covers. The USPS commissioned him to paint the Mark Twain Forever stamp and the March On Washington stamp released in 2013.

Gregory's interest in history and his excellent figure work have made his paintings a favorite choice of the National Geographic Society on many occasions, including The Wreck of the C.S.S. Alabama, and recently, ten paintings for the exhibition, REAL Pirates: The Untold Story of The Whydah, from Slave Ship to Pirate Ship, still traveling to science museums around the country. Manchess has been widely awarded within the industry, including two gold and four silver medals from the NY Society of Illustrators. His peers honored him with the coveted Hamilton King Award in 1999, and the Stephan Dohanos Award for the Best Illustration of the Year by a Member in 2000. The work has garnered several silver medals and recently a bronze from the Society of Illustrators of Los Angeles. He has been featured in, and on the cover of, Communication Arts Magazine and included in Walt Reed's latest edition of The Illustrator in America, 1860-2000.

Gregory teaches a week-long, intensely focused painting course along with eight other artists in Amherst, MA known as The Illustration Master Class. He currently teaches an online class in painting for SmArtSchool and lectures frequently at universities nationwide. He also holds workshops on painting at the Norman Rockwell Museum in Stockbridge, MA.

Conveying emotion through rhythm and timing drives Manchess's masterful, alla prima brushwork as the hallmark of his style. He consistently pushes the limits of the brush today, searching for renewed expressions. A video of his painting process produced in 2009, became a novel containing 123 paintings entitled, Above The Timberline, to be released in October 2017.

DAVID MITCHELL

David Mitchell is a British writer born in 1969. He has been nominated for the Booker Prize five times and his work has appeared in over 30 languages. With KA Yoshida, he translated into English the best-selling autism memoir, The Reason I Jump by Naoki Higashida. His 2014 novel The Bone Clocks won the World Fantasy Book Award. His latest novel, From Me Flows What You Call Time, was entrusted to the Future Library Project and will not be published until 2114. He lives with his family in West Cork, Ireland.

GORDON VAN GELDER

Gordon Van Gelder published his first story in 100 Great Fantasy Short-Short Stories in 1984, but the majority of his career has been spent as an editor. He worked at St. Martins' Press for 12 years and edited The Magazine of Fantasy & Science Fiction for 17 years. He has been honored twice with the World Fantasy Award and he also has been awarded the Hugo Award twice. He is currently the publisher of F&SF and is also editing various anthologies. He lives in New Jersey. (Photo: Leslie Howle)

TOASTMISTRESS

MARTHA WELLS

Martha Wells has written many fantasy novels, including The Wizard Hunters, Wheel of the Infinite, the Books of the Raksura series (beginning with The Cloud Roads), and the Nebula-nominated The Death of the Necromancer, as well as YA fantasy novels, short stories, and non-fiction. She has had stories in Black Gate, Realms of Fantasy, Stargate Magazine, Lightspeed Magazine, and in the anthologies Elemental, Tales of the Emerald Serpent, The Other Half of the Sky, The Gods of Lovecraft, and Mech: Age of Steel. Her newest book in the Raksura series, The Edge of Worlds, was released in April 2016. The last book in the series, The Harbors of the Sun, is forthcoming in July 2017. Her new SF novella, The Murderbot Diaries: All Systems Red will be released by Tor.com in May 2017.

PROGRAMMING

We want to send a big Thank You to everyone who used our online form or email to suggest program ideas. More than 30 WFC members and future members took the time to contribute. We've started building the 2017 program around these core suggestions with the knowledge that your participation is supporting our effort to be as inclusive as possible. We are starting with a great foundation. Our theme is Secret Histories: The Use of History in Fantasy. As is traditional for World Fantasy programming, we are preparing two parallel tracks of panel discussions, and two tracks of readings. Programming will start Thursday afternoon. Working around our receptions and special events, we do plan to offer some evening programs. If you are interested in being a program participant (i.e. doing a reading or participating in a panel discussion), please have a look at the program page and program FAQs on our website. We would like to have the program firmed up by September this year, and have preliminary program assignments in place. This means that invitations to participate in programming will likely be sent in June. If you wish to do a reading or be a speaker on a program of some kind, please join the convention now, and tick the box that indicates your interest! If you aren't able to join just yet, send a note to program@wfc2017.org and let us know you are interested. Many of our program participants will have business to conduct at the convention, and having timely information about the program schedule will make planning easier for them and all our members. So our goal is to go to press with the final program, 99% accurate, early in October—a dynamic program that reflects the requests and suggestions from our membership. Whether you plan to be on programming or just want to enjoy the panels and readings from the audience, we will do our very best to make your experience worthwhile and fun.

HOTEL INFORMATION

The convention hotel is the Wyndham San Antonio Riverwalk (<http://www.wyndhamsariverwalk.com/>), 111 East Pecan, San Antonio, Texas 78205. (Map view) The Wyndham room rate is $149.00 per night. The hotel is currently accepting reservations. Please go to <https://resweb.passkey.com/go/FACT2017> to make your reservations. Parking is $28 per night (valet) or $19 per night (self).

ACCESSIBILITY

World Fantasy ConventionSM 2017 is committed to doing our best to ensure that all of our members feel welcome and comfortable. Accordingly, we will do our best to ensure the accessibility of the entire convention to all of our members. In the coming months, we will appoint an Accessibility Coordinator to ensure that we are doing our best to meet the needs of all our members.

The Wyndham San Antonio Riverwalk is an ADA-compliant hotel, but has a limited number of ADA-compliant guest rooms. Contact chair@wfc2017.org if you need an ADA room or have any accessibility questions.

DEALERS

The World Fantasy Convention Dealers' Room is devoted almost entirely to books and art. Exceptions require prior approval by the World Fantasy Board. The Dealers' Room is juried. Completing the application does not guarantee a spot. Dealers whose applications are accepted must buy a membership to the convention, which will be available at a reduced rate. The limit is two tables per dealer, at $150/table, wifi not included.

ARTISTS

The Art Show for the World Fantasy ConventionSM is a juried show. Digital submissions (JPEG/JPG, GIF, PNG, or TIFF) of no more than 1 MB or URLs to your work are preferred. If you are approved for the show, we will send you a confirmation letter or email and a bill for your space at that time. If you are not approved, we will send you notice of that as well. Panel fees are US$60 for a 4' x 4' panel, with a maximum of 4 panels per artist.

Timeline

- 4/1/2017 – Start accepting applications
- 7/1/2017 – Jury process closes to submissions
- 7/15/2017 – Jury decisions made
- 8/15/2017 – Deadline for artist registration & fees
- 10/27/2017 – Mail-in art must be in hands of convention

WORLD FANTASY AWARDS BALLOT

ELIGIBILITY

All nominated material must have been published in 2016 or have a 2016 cover date. Only living persons may be nominated. When listing stories or other material that may not be familiar to all the judges, please include pertinent information such as author, editor, publisher, magazine name and date, etc.
